To the Democratic Republican Voters of the Tip-pecanoe and other Harrison Associations of the City of New-York:

FRILOW-CITIZENS-When the great object which the Democracy of the Country and in view during the late political campaign was accomplished, and the Democratic Repubcan Associations of this Country with which I had the honor can Associations of this Country with which I had the holder of being identified, had in a great measure performed their mission. I supposed that my humble political labors had closed. The People had triumphed—true Democratic principles had triumphed—the illustrious services of a high minded and enlightened Patriot of the political school of Jefferson and Madison had been recognized and rewarded by the highest honor, because the most sacred trust, that a Nation of Freemen could bestow, and the leaders of a once powerful party, who had by wild and impracticable theories in finance, ruinous measures, corruption, and wasteful expendi-ture of the Public Treasure, brought the Country to the verge of rain, had received, at the hands of the People, a terrible

In this City, though not numerically in the ascendant, we felt that considering the means employed against us, we might claim a victory. We participated largely in the general joy when the Hero, whose honored name our popular Associations bear, assumed the direction of the Government.

Alas! that we should have been so soon called upon to participate in the general sorrow for the loss of that venerable and beloved citizen.

He has left us, in his dying words, a glorious legacy. Let it be our care whenever called upon to exercise the sovereign prerogative of Freemen, to choose for our Rulers or Representatives only such men as will 'carry out the principles of the Government.

THIS DAY we are to choose a local chief magistrate. and it is the more than ordinary interest that attaches to this contest, which has brought me, your humble co-laborer, again into the political arena. I cannot, and I am sure you cannot, with the words of the illustrious dead fresh in our recollection, stand tamely by, when ROBERT H. MORRIS is a candidate for office, and that office the chief magistracy of this city. So far from carrying out or even recognizing the principles of the Constitution, when clothed with judicial authority, he trampled upon them, and upon the rights which

But what shall we say of the Judge himself when he descends from the bench, and at midnight, without a warrant, invades the dwelling of a private citizen and by threats of farther violence extorts from him property committed to his charge? In what does the conduct of such a Judge differ from that of a desperado, who makes similar seizures on the nuthority of a brace of pistols ! In what does it differ save that the station of the culprit adds to the enormity of the How could such a chief magistrate condemn the burglar, whose system of making forcible appropriations he had himself so recently patronized.

It is unnecessary here to go into the proofs of the illegality of the acts of this partizan Judge, this would-be Jeffries They have been stated and re-stated. The Morris faction do not deny them. I say the Morris faction, because I would not be guilty of so gross an act of injustice as to apply this language to the great body of the opposition party in this City. Even the Post admits he may have exceeded his legal authority and committed what that paper calls a 'mistake And shall the Judge, the expounder of the law, plead ignorance as an excuse, when that plea will not avail the unedu-No! no! But it was not a mistake-it was a daring act of outrage-known to be such by the perpetrator What was the Constitution—what the Law—what the Pre-cedent to this Conspirator? Nothing; and having played the Inquisitor-the Party Editor, the Accusing Witness and Presiding Judge, it was easy for him to take one step more, and place himself on a pur with the Midnight Depredator, ut even the felon's excuse of necessity Will you, my Fellow-Citizens, whose power and energy and patriotic efforts were so conspicuous in our late cam-paign, pardon the 'mistake' of the Ex-Recorder, and permit him, if your utmost efforts can prevent it, to become the Chief Magistrate of our City? Hold up, as in pride you may, the high claims and spotless character of our candidate, J. PHILLIPS PRICNIX—a candidate worthy the confidence of all good men of all parties—worthy your best efforts at any time—doubly so at present, when put in contrast with a Law-defying and Peace-breaking jud

COME UP, THEN, TO THE GOOD WORK, IN ALL YOUR STRENGTH, in every Ward, and in every District in every Ward, give your best efforts, until the close of the Contest. Our opponents have nobly mingled their sympa-thies with ours, on the occasion of our late berenvement—and be assured that many-many of them, feel as we feel, that Robert H. Morris is not the man to rule over a Free and Law Respecting People. J.N. REYNOLDS, which he cherished toward the Bank. In conclusion he says:

"Sur a is the history of this cotton operation. It consisted increly in this—that the Bank, accustomed to buy bills of exchange on private credit, resolved for greater precaution when private credit was very unsafe, to buy only from a known party, on real shipments of produce.
This lasted about twelve months, and when it was over, it being found that the Bank had advanced for these cottons more than they realized, in consequence of the conduct of the Bank itself, the parties interested, refunded the money. Yet this transaction, simple, straightforward and public, is perverted into a mysterious and ruinous speculation."

BEALS' HAIR RESTORATIVE.

THIS valuable discovery is introduced to the public with the fullest confidence and assurance that it will effect the object of its application, viz: a complete restoration of the hair upon the heads of those who have lost the same and have thereby become hald, or partially so. Numerous certificates might be given to show how successfully this Compound has been applied, (never having failed in a single instance,) but as it is brought before the public to be applied upon the hair principle of no charge without success, it is deemed unnecessary to swell am advertisement with particular.

Its virtues have been fully and satisfactorily tested. The heads of those that were entirely baid, have been by the application of this Restorative, covered with a laxurient growth of beautiful hair.

They further offer to enter into a contract with any party to restore their hair under the penalty of a forfeit of from Two to Five Hundred Dollars: said party being bound in like sum, to be paid when the Hair shall have been restored.

ALL HUMBUG OR QUACKERY IN THIS MATTER IS UTTERLY DISCLAIMED.

They also offer the article for sale for the benefit of those who prefer applying it themselves, which can be done with the same certainty of success in restoring the Hair, as when applied by the Proprietors.

The prices are $1 per bottle and $3 per jar. For sale at wholesale and retail by

TO The spirit of this enemy to human health and happiness, ha reduced many an individual to powerty, distress, anguish, and death Like Felix, deferring an all-important point to "a more convenient season," many lose the opening opportunities of serving themselves and others. Procrastination in business matters, produces the same spirit in cases of health, and many a person adopts every excuss for the neglect of the one, and the omission of the other. In essess of incipient consumption, every article is obtained to afford specify relief—bleeding and blistering are resorted to—and the patient is tortured by operations and drugs. "Why, says a visitor, "do you not try Pease's Horehound Candy." The answer is—I will, if Lazzinot better in a few days—I will consult my physician." This is done, and be says, "I abhor quack medicines." The patient knowing its harmless effects, sends for a package, takes it unknown to the physician; recovery health and strength and the doctor boasts of his mirraculous recovery, little suspecting that it was doe a by one package of Pease's Horehound Candy, from 50 Dysion street.

EXTRACT OF A LETTER,

Received from the Island of St. Vincent, West Indies. LANGUAGE, dear sir, can but feebly express the deep excitemen which is produced in the whole extent of this island by the recent importation of a very palatable medicamentum from the city of New York, N. A. called Pease & Son's Clarified Essence of Horehound Candy. This is indeed a rare avis of its kind, and most effectual, as it cured the President's lady of a most distressing chronic cough of several years standing, in the most incredibly short space of four hours. I have also tested its virtues in my own complaint, palpatis cordis, and after having used three packages of this admirable empound, I feel now entirely free from my old friend. Really, Mr. Pease is worthy to be accounted the Howard of America

DANIEL CREIGHTON. Yours faithfully, Closed on the Sabbath. Agents.-Zieher, 87 Dock street, Philadelphia; Redding, 8 State
